

BANGALORE CITY MUNICIPALITY.

The 6th March 1892.

1. It is hereby notified for the information of the public that sites have been marked for house building purposes in what is known as the Western Extension of the Bangalore City.

2. The sites allotted to the various classes are noted below :—

Names of Community.	Approximate number of sites allotted.	Measurement of each site approximately.	Price of each site.
Brahmin Community	200	30' × 108'	Varying from Rs. 25 to 50.
Vaisya Community	100	Do	Do
Sivachar Community including Nagarthas	100	Do	Do
Mudaliars and Naidu Community and other Hindus	200	Do	Do
Muhammadan Community	100	Do	Do
Native Christians	50	Do	Do

3. In addition to these there are about 100 sites measuring from 90' × 108' to 120' × 108' approximately, available for building bungalows or better classes of houses with some compound round them.

4. Good potable water has been found on the sites at depths varying from 22 feet or 62 feet from the surface according to the nature of the ground. The streets have been laid out so as not to interfere with the arrangements now under contemplation for effectually draining and sewerage the Western Extension.

5. Persons who are in actual need of building sites may apply to the President for sites.

6. The applications should reach the President on or before the 31st March 1892. The words "Applications for building sites" should be legibly written on the cover.

7. The undermentioned gentlemen are appointed to form a Sub-Committee to dispose of applications for grant of building sites with power to add to their number :—

8. The allotment will be made at the Municipal Offices at 8 A. M., on the 7th of April 1892.

9. No member of one caste will be given sites set apart for other castes.

10. The price of each site other than that for a bungalow shall not exceed Rs. 50 or be less than Rs. 25.

11. Each site will be taken up and offered to the applicants present at Rs. 25 per site. If there are more than one applicant, the site shall be put up to auction until the bid goes to Rs. 50.

12. The price fixed by the Committee shall be paid in full within one week of the application being granted.

13. Within six months from the date of the grant of the site, the applicant shall collect the building materials on the site and within twelve months complete the building.

14. If the applicant fails to pay the price fixed by the Sub-Committee or to complete the building within the time fixed, the site shall be liable to be resumed without any claim for compensation.

15. The buildings are expected to be substantial ones and to have a presentable frontage with necessary arrangements for conservancy purposes in the rear.

16. No transfer of any site will become valid unless and until it has been sanctioned and recognized by the President.

17. No site will be granted to any body who is not actually in need of a house or who does not want it for bonâ fide purposes of building a house.

18. The President reserves the right of refusing any application without assigning any reason therefor.

19. Bungalow sites will be knocked down to the highest bidder on the 23rd of April 1892 at a sale to be held before the President or Vice-President at 8 A. M., at the Municipal Office.

20. Any information regarding the locality and sites may be obtained at the Municipal Office during office hours. The plans also will be on inspection.
